

Are exhibitor orders getting “lost”?

Are your disconnected systems costing you double work and losing you visibility to your business?

Are you missing opportunities for sales?

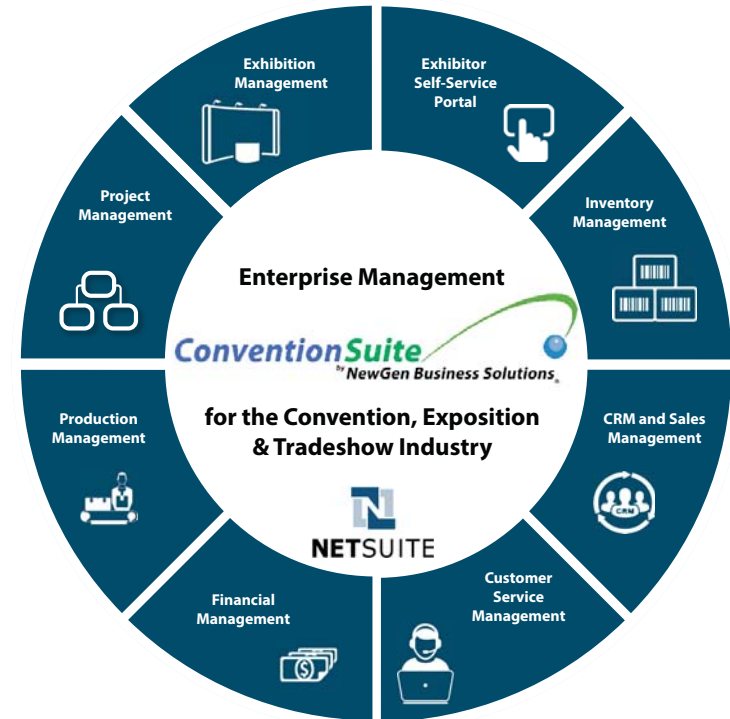

Do you really know whether a project is profitable?

Can you manage by exception to dig through the mess?

ConventionSuite can help you.

ConventionSuite is a complete, unified business management suite for the Convention, Exposition and Tradeshow Industry. ConventionSuite is built on top of NetSuite, the #1 Cloud ERP system in the market, running more than 40,000 organizations.

- Exhibition Management – Define shows, booths and offerings in one simple interface. Real-time visibility to orders with dashboards and exception management.
- Exhibitor Self-Service Portal – Provide a consumer website shopping experience for your exhibitors to order products and services. Flexible pricing, upselling and real-time payment processing.
- Inventory Management – Track all your inventory from multiple locations to show floor in real-time. Manage rental and customer-owned inventory with optional warehouse management capabilities.
- CRM and Sales Management – Manage and control your sales process from opportunity to quote to sales order. Workflows and automation to drive best practices.
- Customer Service Management – Real-time tracking of all customer service issues from the exhibitor portal or phone calls. Case and task tracking with exception management.
- Financial Management – Seamless integration with all order management and inventory eliminates duplicate systems and delayed results. P&L visibility by show.
- Production Management – Visibility into every step of the production process including work order processing, routing, scheduling, bill of materials and component management and product costing.
- Project Management – Real-time visibility to maintain current and accurate project status. Staffing and utilization tracking. Project accounting connects project activities with company financials.

Find out why others in your industry are moving to the ConventionSuite advantage. We look forward to discussing your current challenges and show you what ConventionSuite can do for you.

NewGen Business Solutions
www.conventionsuite.com
 877-932-2478, ext. 210
sales@newgennow.com